

INSTITUTE OF CLASSICAL ARCHITECTURE

ABOUT THE ARTIST AND CONTRIBUTORS

Gary Carsley is an artist who lives and works in Sydney, Australia where he also active as a Senior Lecturer in the Faculty of Art and Design at the University of New South Wales. He has been exhibiting around the world for more than three decades and his first exhibition in New York was at [redacted] in 2008. Since then Gary has participated in many large-scale institutional projects in the United States including producing new works for [redacted], an historic garden and cultural centre in the Bronx, The [redacted] in New York and the [redacted]. He also works widely in South East Asia having most recently finished a large-scale, site-specific installations for the [redacted] in Singapore and [redacted] in Bangkok.